NEWS OF THE DAY.

The boycott against American merchandise, called by leading society women of Mexico City, is spreading rapidly. At a mass meeting an anti-American resolution, which was passed, condemning the American government for not recognizing the Huerta government, and many persons pledged themselves to join the boycott. Some stores displayed signs today reading: "Only Mexican and European goods sold here."

The Underwood tariff bill yesterday was sent to the Finance Committee. By a vote of 41 to 36 the Senate refused public hearings. This vote was looked on as a test of President Wilson's control of the Democratic situation in the Senate. Only two Democrats left the reservation. The Louisiana Senators, Ransdell and Thornton, who are expected to vote against the tariff bill on its final passage, and to vote with the Republicans on every important issue raised concerning it. The Democrats were recruited by one vote, Senator Poindexter of Washington the only avowed progressive or Third party man in the Senate.

One life was lost in a severe storm that swept Central Kentucky early yesterday between Maysville and Cynthiana. Ed Mays, aged thirty-four, a farmer, of near Maysville, was struck by lightning.

After killing his wife, a hospital nurse, and wounding his wife's mother, Mrs. W. J. Webber, and the latter's daughter, Mrs. Winnie Rowe Geo. Hampton, a miner, placed the muzzle of a shot gun in his mouth at Globe, Arizona, yesterday and blew off the top of his head. Hampton and his wife had been separated some time. He went to the Webber house today declaring he would "wipe out the whole family."

Bishop William Creswell Doane, bishop of the Albany diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church, died at the Hotel Manhattan at an early hour this morning. He was 81 years old.

Mark W. Moore, one of the best known printers in the District of Columbia, dropped dead yesterday afternoon in his bed room, 1203 North Capitol street, Washington. Mr. Moore was 61 years old, and for many years had been manager of the Law Reporter Printing Company.

Robert Constable, a farm hand, was shot and instantly killed by his employer, Harry De Witt, in Wantage township, near Newton, N. J., yesterday after a dispute as to which should drive the latter's wife to town to do some shopping.

Charles T. Burns, assistant foreman of division in the Weather Bureau, yesterday was demoted from his present position at $1,600 a year to the position of compositor in the bureau of $1,250 a year by Secretary of Agriculture Houston. This was the penalty of his activity in behalf of Willis L. Moore, recently dismissed as chief of the bureau, for Secretary of Agriculture. Burns was found guilty of the charges.

F. B. Slate, editor of a Mount Auburn, Ill., paper yesterday shot Dr. B. P. Windsor, mayor of Mount Auburn, in the stomach. The shooting occurred in the railroad station at Decatur, where Windsor was waiting for a train. After being shot the Mayor boarded the train and went to a hospital in Springfield. Slate was arrested and jailed at Taylorville. The shooting was the result of an old feud which was resumed at the spring election, when Slate opposed Windsor bitterly.

Governor Carranza has issued a decree declaring that the law of January 25, 1862, popularly known as the "law of Maximilian," would be enforced against Huerta and his associates when they are captured. This law provides that any person making an attempt on the life of the chief magistrate of the republic or any of his ministers engaging in a seditious uprising against the legal authorities, or inviting the invasion of foreign troops shall suffer the penalty of death. Under this law Maximilian was executed. Dr. Francisco Visquez Gomez concluded his conference with Governor Carranza today. The Governor declined to give any information as to the meeting's result.

A foul tip from a golf ball, used as a baseball, caused the death yesterday of Leo Clair Cummings, 12 years old, son of Mathew Cummings of Pittsfield, Mass. The accident occurred last Saturday when the ball was sent through the wiring of a mask the boy wore and fractured his skull.
